FUNDING OPPORTUNITY ANNOUNCEMENT: BRIDGING GRANTS

The Center for Social and Economic Behavior (C–SEB) at the University of Cologne brings together researchers from economics, management science, and psychology to investigate the mechanisms that determine social and economic behavior. As one of the University of Cologne's Research Centers, C–SEB provides funding for outstanding individuals and excellent collaborative research projects in the field of behavioral economics and social cognition.

Information on C–SEB BRIDGING GRANTS

To initiate new research projects and motivate scientific exchange between disciplines, C–SEB invites applications for C–SEB Bridging Grants.

Bridging Grants of up to 40,000 € are available for inter-disciplinary research initiatives that focus on connecting approaches and findings from different disciplines covered by C–SEB.

Eligibility and Requirements
Bridging Grants are open to all C–SEB principal investigators employed at the University of Cologne. Projects are only eligible for application if at least two C–SEB principal investigators from different disciplines collaborate. The content of the research project must relate to C–SEB's overall topics.

Application and Selection Procedure
Decisive criteria for the granting of funds are the scientific quality and originality as well as the cost–effectiveness of the proposed research project. Across all research funding lines, each individual may submit only one application per round as lead applicant. The C–SEB Executive Board selects among the duly received proposals. The application deadline is April 30th, 2024.

Please submit the application form along with a research proposal and the CVs of all researchers involved in a single PDF file to c–seb@uni–koeln.de. Applications are limited to 2 pages for the proposal, 1 page for references, and 2 pages for each CV. Please be prepared to give a short presentation on your proposed project should we ask you to do so.

For inquiries, please contact the C–SEB Central Office | Phone: +49 221 470–1146 | E-mail: c–seb@uni–koeln.de
